Never before on the market this is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Winter Park History! Gorgeous 1955 Gamble Rogers home with double waterfrontage (155' on Lake Osceola, 235' on the Venetian Canal). Amazing architecture, both inside and out. Grand foyer with spiral staircase. Formal living areas with panoramic views of the majestic oaks and lake. Double master suites, one upstairs and one down. Room for an expansive, gourmet kitchen. Oversized bedrooms, each with full bath. Walk out balconies off the front and back of the home featuring detailed iron work. Home is impeccable and is representative of timeless elegance and class. Stunning property offers over 1 acre of land and is set quietly back from Winter Park's prestigious Palmer Avenue. Surrounded by both historic and brand new multi-million dollar homes, this one-of-a-kind property is walking distance to Park Avenue, and minutes from the Interlachen Golf & Country Club and Winter Park Racquet Club. Properties this special hardly ever come on the market, so don't wait. If you've been looking for the perfect place to renovate or build your lakefront estate, this is it.
