Amoravida

Goa, Goa, India

Amoravida is a signature project of Atmanya Projects LLP. A group whose mission is to create unique spaces that inspire clients to discover their true atmanya, the Sanskrit word for 'Connecting with the Self.' Atmanya is a profound effort to change the way we live, interact with our environs and relate to each other. A commitment to build new communities of like-minded people who cherish the idea of owning assets that embody these values.
