An estate of stylish modernist architecture in exclusive Fasano community located in the private community Fasano Las Piedras in Uruguay overlooking beautiful nature and only being 10 minutes away from the ocean and its amazing beaches and the beach town La Barra. Fasano Las Piedras offers all kinds of amenities, security and a five star hotel with a top rated restaurant. This newer home is situated by the golf course designed by Arnold Palmer and affords open views to the well designed and maintained landscape. Designed by a renowned architect, the home was built with quality finishes. The house is decorated with taste and is fully equipped with underfloor heating and air conditioning in all rooms. The complex offers its own hotel service and has a horse-riding area with stables, heliport, golf course, tennis court, kids' club, sauna, heated swimming pool, access to its private beach on the Maldonado river and much more. This is the perfect place for someone seeking absolute privacy and security with top notch amenities and is sold fully furnished. A viewing is highly recommended and currently the best value within Fasano.
